

THE COCONINO SUN.

Discrimination.

The thrifty merchant marks him down.
On shoes of men, the prices.
But when he comes to women's shoes
Then marks he down the sizes.

A Man of Affairs.

The following old-time handbill, issued near Lancaster, England, and unearthed by the Youth's Companion, must have come from one who was emulating the example of the man who had five talents and made of them five talents more. Let us hope he was rewarded:

"James Williams, parish clerk, sexton, town crier and bellman, makes and sells all sorts of haberdasheries, groceries, &c.; likewise hair and wigs drest and cut on shortest notice. N. B.—I keep an evening school, where I teach at humble rates, reading, riting and rithmetic and singing. N. B.—I play an hookey occasionally if wanted. N. B.—By shop next door see where I bleed, draw teeth and shoe horses with greatest scil. N. B.—Children taught to dance by me, J. Williams, who buy and sell old iron and coats. Boots and shoes cleaned and mended.

Turkey Shooting.

There will be a turkey shooting at the race track south of town Wednesday and Thursday, November 23 and 24. If you are a good shot you can get your Thanksgiving turkey for almost nothing.
